The Yorktown Campaign
Washington's March and Naval Actions, 20 August - 26 September, 1781

Admiral DeGrasse reached the Chesapeake on 26 August.
Admiral DeGrasse reached New York, 4 Sept.
Admiral Barras slipped in with siege artillery, 10 September.
Allied army crossed at King's Ferry, 20-25 August.

Admiral Graves returned to New York, 4 Sept.
Admiral Graves sailed, 31 Aug.
3,000 French troops from DeGrasse's fleet joined Lafayette on 5 September Washington's force closed by 26 September.

5,000 French troops from DeGrasse's fleet joined Lafayette on 5 September Washington's force closed by 26 September.