Problem of the Week
Week # 30

Arrange 10 pennies in the familiar bowling-pin formation. What is the smallest number of coins you must remove so that no equilateral triangle, of any size, will have its three corners marked by the centers of three pennies that remain?