Problem of the Week
Week # 6

Without the method of exhaustive search, find the unique three-digit Celsius temperature which can be converted to its Fahrenheit equivalent by moving the last digit to the front of the number.