Israeli units generally reached full strength by the end of 8 Oct. Israeli units regained the “Purple Line” positions by 10 Oct. and shifted the divisions of Laner and Eylan farther north for the 11 Oct. attack north of Quneitra. See map 13b.

Exploiting forces which could not be committed because of rapid Israeli reaction to the initial attack.

1967 cease fire line; it essentially became the border. Known as “Purple Line.”

Israel fortified observation posts.