Exploiting forces which could not be committed because of rapid Israeli reaction to the initial attack.

1967 cease-fire line. It essentially became the border. Known as "Purple Line."

Israel units regained the "Purple Line" positions by 10 Oct. and shifted the divisions of Laner and Eylan farther north to prepare for the 11 Oct. attack north of Quneitra. See map 13b.

Numerous attacks after 12 Oct.

Front stabilized after 14 Oct.. Local attacks made only limited gains.

Israel units generally reached full strength by the end of 8 Oct.

All Arab units are Syrian unless otherwise indicated.

1967 cease-fire line. It essentially became the border. Known as "Purple Line."

Numerous attacks after 12 Oct.