NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FIRST CADET AWARDED SAINT ANDREW’S SOCIETY SCHOLARSHIP – April 4, 2013

WEST POINT, N.Y. – U.S. Military Academy Cadet Matthew Gallup has been named the 2013 Saint Andrew’s Society scholarship recipient making him the first cadet to earn the opportunity to attend the University of Glasgow, Scotland.

A Temple, Texas, native, Gallup is a mechanical engineering major at the academy. He is expected to be commissioned as a second lieutenant upon graduation in May and will serve in the Aviation branch of the U.S. Army.

The Saint Andrew’s scholarship offers one year of graduate study valued at $30,000. Gallup plans to earn a Master of Science in Aerospace Systems while in Scotland.

-30-