SPECIAL OLYMPICS SPRING GAMES AT WEST POINT – April 14, 2015

WEST POINT, N.Y. – More than 750 athletes from Orange, Rockland, Sullivan, Dutchess, Westchester and Ulster counties and more than 1,000 cadet and community volunteers will gather for the 31st Annual 2015 Hudson Valley Region Spring Special Olympics at West Point, April 25.

The competition kicks off at 10 a.m. with opening ceremonies at Shea Stadium. Events will continue through 4 p.m., at the Arvin Cadet Physical Development Center, Gillis Field House, and the North Athletic Field. Competitive events include Track & Field, Swimming, Power Lifting, and Adaptive Games.

U.S. Military Academy Dean of the Academic Board, Brig. Gen. Tim Trainor, will be the grand marshal for the event.

Local school districts sending teams to compete include, Monroe-Woodbury, Newburgh, Washingtonville, Valley Central and West Point.

Omicron Delta Kappa, the Leadership Honor Society at West Point, hosts the event. The U.S. Corps of Cadets Color Guard and USMA Band are among those scheduled to participate during the day’s activities.

Prior to the day’s events, a Torch Run for the 2015 Special Olympics will begin from the Highland Falls Rite Aid parking lot at 9:20 a.m., incorporating a contingent of cadets, community support from the local fire and police departments as well as a motorcycle vanguard. They will proceed through Highland Falls to Thayer Gate and then to Shea Stadium for the event.
