WEST POINT CADET EARNS GLAMOUR WOMEN OF THE YEAR RECOGNITION – June 4, 2018

WEST POINT, N.Y. – Glamour Magazine announced today recent graduate former First Captain and Rhodes Scholar 2nd Lt. Simone Askew as one of the 2018 College Women of the Year.

Each year for the last 61 years, Glamour has been recognizing ten outstanding students: scientists, athletes, activists, businesswomen. The one thing they have in common, aside from being in college, is that they're incredible at what they do.

Glamour looks for students with strong leadership skills, who excel in extracurricular activities or athletics, and give back to their community or campus in some way.

The U.S. Military Academy at West Point is a four-year, co-educational, federal, liberal arts college located 50 miles north of New York City. It was founded in 1802 as America's first college of engineering and continues today as the world's premier leader-development institution, consistently ranked among top colleges in the country. Its mission remains constant—to educate, train, and inspire the Corps of Cadets so that each graduate is a commissioned leader of character committed to the values of Duty, Honor, Country and prepared for a career of professional excellence and service to the nation as an officer in the U. S. Army. For more information, go to www.westpoint.edu.
