

Department of History 2018 Summer AIADs

- Cold War (POC: MAJ Ben Griffin)
 - Japan and Taiwan (POC: CPT Ed Hoogland)
 - WW I in Memory and Literature (POC: CPT Devin Collins)
 - 1st Infantry Division Museum Internship
 - National Security Council Internship
- (POC: LTC Frederick Black)

To apply for any of these opportunities, get an application from a History Department Counselor or the History Department Website. For questions about individual trips, contact the listed POC via email.

Application Deadline: 13 October 2017 for all History AIADs.

2018 Cold War Staff Ride

Berlin, Prague, Budapest, Krakow, and Warsaw

Tentative Dates: 21May-10Jun
(21-29 May is classroom work at USMA)

POC: MAJ Ben Griffin

The Japanese Empire: Metropole and Colony

Tentative Dates: 1 - 14 June (21 – 31 May classroom work)

Travel to Taiwan and Japan to learn about:

- 19th and 20th century rise and expansion of Japanese Imperial Power
- Governing colonies and territories in war and peace
- Legacy and memory of the Japanese Empire

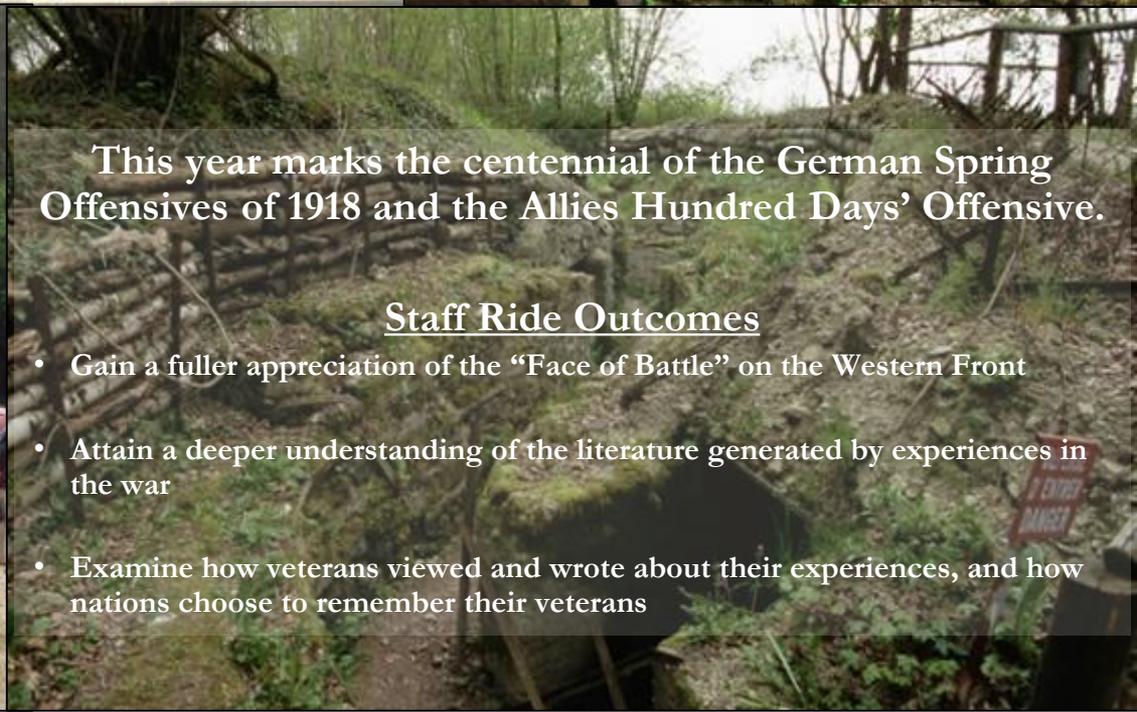

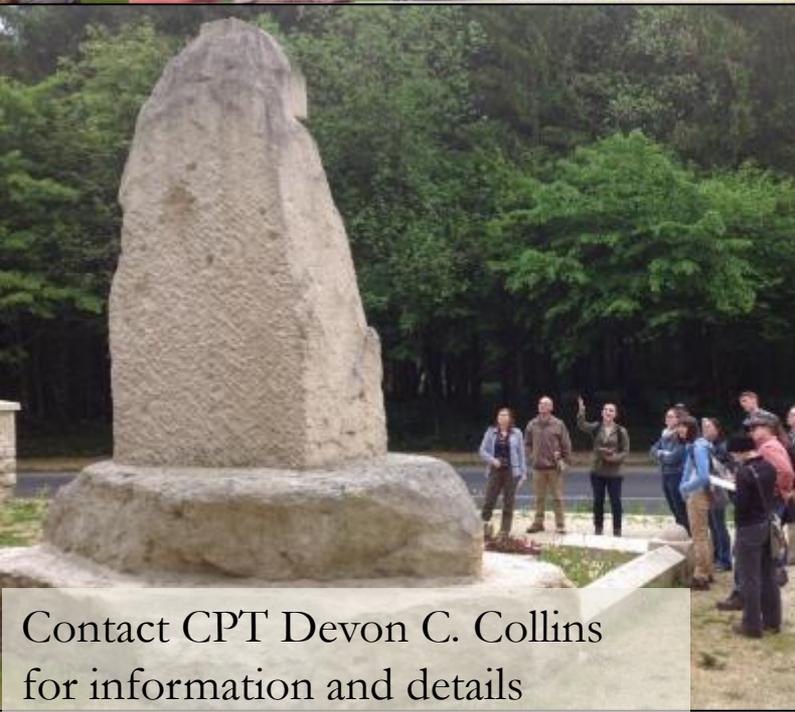

POCs: CPT(P) Edward Hoogland and CPT Adam Chang

UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY
WEST POINT

World War I in Memory and Literature AIAD

Come join us in the trenches for a study of the Western Front of the Great War through the memoirs, literature, and poetry written by those who fought and died.

This year marks the centennial of the German Spring Offensives of 1918 and the Allies Hundred Days' Offensive.

Staff Ride Outcomes

- Gain a fuller appreciation of the “Face of Battle” on the Western Front
- Attain a deeper understanding of the literature generated by experiences in the war
- Examine how veterans viewed and wrote about their experiences, and how nations choose to remember their veterans

Contact CPT Devon C. Collins for information and details

1st INFANTRY MUSEUM/CANTIGNY SUMMER INTERNSHIP AIAD

Description: Work in an operating museum and learn how to properly archive material, how to conduct proper historical research, and how to think like historians. Complete a project dealing with any aspect of the 1st Infantry Division's storied history.

Benefits:

- * Work with great people
- * Learn about the practical uses of history and museums
- * 30 minutes from downtown Chicago

Dates: Flexible...can fit anywhere in your summer schedule.

POC: LTC Frederick Black

National Security Council Internship AIAD

National Security Council

The National Security Council (NSC) is the President's principal forum for considering national security and foreign policy matters with his senior national security advisors and cabinet officials. Since its inception under President Truman, the Council's function has been to advise and assist the President on national security and foreign policies. The Council also serves as the President's principal arm for coordinating these policies among various government agencies.

Description: Work within the National Security Council (NSC) staff and learn how the NSC helps formulate current and future US policy. You will see how government professionals integrate the study of history into current events.

Benefits:

- * Work with great people
- * Get an up-close and personal view of US government processes
- * Work in Washington, DC

Dates: Flexible...can fit anywhere in your summer schedule.

POC: LTC Frederick Black