The role of the School Liaison Officer is to work in conjunction with the Child, Youth & School Services Division and the local school community to address educational issues involving military children. Through partnering with the local and military community, the School Liaison Officer uses a variety of resources to provide assistance with issues concerning student transition. The School Liaison Officer acts as a communication link between the installation and the surrounding school districts.

Resources

Free Online Tutoring

This is a free online tutoring service for Army affiliated students. Students should go to www.myarmyonesource.com to register and obtain their CYSS passcode. Educational support is available for grades K- 12 in math, science, English, and social studies. Students and tutors work together in an online classroom.

SOAR (Student Online Achievement Resources)

This FREE program makes it easy for parents to play an active role in their children's education. SOAR is designed for Military Families, and is easily accessible worldwide. Students take an assessment aligned to state standards, and SOAR directs them to individualized tutorials to improve skills where needed. www.soarathome.com

Home School Programs

CYSS offers many opportunities to youth who receive home instruction at West Point. Physical Education & Technology classes are offered frequently during the academic year for ages 5 & up. In addition, various SKIES classes are available throughout the year.

Youth Sponsorship

A Youth Sponsor will help provide the answer to these questions and many more. Their job is to help eliminate the unknowns. Youth Sponsors are trained to help new youth feel welcomed at West Point. A Youth Sponsor is able to introduce the newcomer at school, at the Youth Center or School-Age Program and to friends. If you are interested in this program, please call the School Liaison Officer at 938-8899.

Exceptional Family Member Program

A mandatory enrollment program that works with other military and civilian agencies to provide comprehensive and coordinated community support, housing, educational, medical, personnel, and respite care services to Families with special needs.
